

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: October 15, 2026

Thank you for visiting the website of National Black Empowerment Action Fund (NBEAF), Accountable Michigan. Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard your information when you visit our website AccountableMichigan.com.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information:

- Personal Information: Such as your name, email address, phone number, mailing address, information provided when you sign up for updates, volunteer, or interact with us.
- Candidate Questionnaire Information: Including candidate names, offices sought, questionnaire responses, and any additional explanations or information voluntarily submitted through the Michigan 2026 Accountability Program.
- Non-Personal Information: Including IP addresses, browser type, device information, pages visited, and other usage data, collected through cookies and analytics tools.

How We Use Your Information

We may use your information to:

- Administer the Michigan 2026 Accountability Program, including collecting and publishing candidate questionnaire responses
- Send you organizational and program updates, newsletters, and promotional communications;
- Respond to your inquiries or requests;
- Improve the functionality and content of our website;
- Ensure compliance with legal obligations.

Candidate Questionnaire Responses

As part of the Michigan 2026 Accountability Program, NBEAF intends to publish candidate questionnaire responses verbatim and unedited on the Accountable Michigan website. This may include candidate names, offices sought, responses, and accompanying explanations. Candidates who do not submit a questionnaire may be publicly identified as having not responded.

Sharing of Information

We do not sell your personal information. SMS opt-in data will not be shared with third parties for marketing or promotional purposes. We may share your information with:

- Vendors and service providers who assist in NBEAF's operations and administration of the Accountable Michigan website (e.g., email services, payment processors where applicable, and website hosting providers);
- Government agencies as required by law, including any applicable federal or state reporting requirements;
- Partners or service providers supporting NBEAF's activities, as permitted by applicable law and consistent with this Privacy Policy.
- Members of the public, with respect to candidate questionnaire responses published as part of the Michigan 2026 Accountability Program.

Cookies and Tracking

We may use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience on our site. You can manage cookie preferences through your browser settings.

Your Choices

You may unsubscribe from our communications at any time by following the “unsubscribe” link in our emails.

Terms and Conditions

By accessing and using this website, you agree to the following terms and conditions (“Terms”) set forth.

User Submissions

By submitting your information (such as signing up, or submitting comments or candidate questionnaire responses), you grant us the right to use that information in connection with our activities, including the public publication of candidate questionnaire responses as described above.

Prohibited Activities

You agree not to engage in unauthorized data collection, distribute malicious software or content, interfere with the website’s operation or security, or impersonate any person or misrepresent your affiliation.

Mobile Terms and Conditions

By signing up for emails and texts, you consent to receive donation asks and informational messages from National Black Empowerment Action Fund. Message and data rates may apply.

Message frequency varies. Unsubscribe at any time by replying STOP or clicking the unsubscribe link (where available). Reply HELP for help.

Mobile opt-in information and consent will not be shared with third parties or affiliates for their marketing or promotional purposes.

Changes to this Privacy Policy and Terms and Conditions

We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy and Terms and Conditions at any time. Any updates will be reflected on this page with a revised effective date.

Contact Us

If you have any questions, please contact info@nbeaf.org.